Attendance Policy

As language learning is a highly cumulative process, absences in class are not allowed. Students who miss more than 7 classes will be asked to withdraw from the course before the withdrawal date, after which, they will automatically receive an “F” as a final grade for the course. Even when excused, repeated absences hinder the learning process.

AUP ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Students studying at The American University of Paris are expected to attend ALL scheduled classes.

A maximum of four (4) excused absences per semester may be requested for all 4-credit courses. Two semester per 1 or 2-credit course may be requested.

The French Department has its own attendance policy. Students are responsible for compliance.

Attendance at all exams is mandatory.

Student Affairs will recommend that a professor excuse an absence for the following reason only:

Involuntary absences due to illness or personal emergencies, upon presentation of documentary proof of

Religious and National Holidays:

Due to the large number of nationalities and faiths represented at the University, religious and national holidays (on the academic schedule) will not be excused by Student Affairs.

Academic Affairs will excuse an absence for students' participation in study trips related to their courses

Lateness to course meetings:

If a student arrives at course meetings more than 10 minutes late without documentation for one of the above reasons, it is considered an unexcused absence.

All documentation must be submitted to the Office of Student Affairs within ONE WEEK following the first

IN ALL CASES OF MISSED COURSE MEETINGS, THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR COMMUNICATION WITH THE PROFESSOR AND FOR ARRANGING TO MAKE UP MISSED WORK RESTS SOLELY WITH THE STUDENT.

Whether an absence (excused or unexcused) is accepted or not is ALWAYS up to the discretion of the professor/department. Unexcused absences can result in a low or failing participation grade. In the case of excess unexcused absences, it is up to the professor or the department to decide if the student will receive an “F”. An instructor may recommend the withdrawal of a student whose absences from any course, excused or not, prevent the student to continue in the course at a satisfactory level. The professor may consult with Student Affairs for additional information.

Students must be mindful of this policy when making their travel arrangements, and especially during Exam Periods.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY STATEMENT: As an Anglophone university, The American University is committed to effective English language mastery at the undergraduate level. Most courses require scholarly writing, both written and oral presentations in English, and AUP students are expected to strive to achieve excellence in the quality of their course work. To that end, professors include English proficiency among the criteria in student evaluation. Students are encouraged to visit the university Writing Lab where they may obtain help on specific academic assignments. Proficiency is monitored at various points throughout the student's academic career, most notably during the admission process, while the student is completing general education requirements, and during the accomplishment of degree requirements, including senior theses.
